

10 big hopes for change in education

02.

All young people are set up to thrive in life not exams

---

Renew the curriculum in line with the OECD 2030 Learning Framework, which focuses on agency and the attitudes, knowledge and skills that learners need to fulfil their potential and contribute to the well-being of their communities and the planet.

05.

Every child has the best possible start in life

---

Recognise the crucial importance of early years in shaping life chances by creating a cross-departmental Cabinet position responsible for increasing early years investment and driving evidence-based commissioning.

08.

All schools are actively supported to improve and learn together

---

Rethink the role of Ofsted to encourage shared learning and action between schools, and collective responsibility for the success of all children.

03.

There is a broader view and story of success for every child

---

Redesign assessment to measure what really matters, when it matters, in ways that put less pressure on learners and support learning rather than judging.

06.

Multiple pathways through learning and into work are valued and supported

---

Transform careers support for the 21st Century to provide authentic, real-world experiences that build confidence, understanding, and skills to prepare students for life and work.

09.

Schools thrive as part of local learning ecosystems

---

Develop a network of Local Learning Brokers who work locally and regionally to support meaningful collaboration between schools, employers and the wider community.

01.

There is a new public conversation about education

---

Launch a commission on the future of education and learning in England that unites the needs and ambitions of learners, educators, employers, and parents.

04.

Every child can fall in love with learning and keep on learning for life

---

Introduce a Lifelong Learning Portfolio for every child to capture what they learn in different contexts, encourage them to find their passions, ignite the joy of learning, and invest in their learning for life.

07.

Professional learning is as important as student learning

---

Elevate teaching through significant investment in teacher training, on-going development, and systems of support for professional learning that rival the best in the world.

10.

Education is protected from short term politics

---

Establish a National Agency for Learning, run by experts from across the system, that determines joined-up education and skills policy and funding for the long-term interests of citizens and society.
